An efficient approach for determining a price is to ship out a survey to your present customers. If these prospects have already bought an book from you, ask for their opinion in terms of price. Do this by creating a gross sales web page for the new guide, but don't embrace a price on that page. As an alternative, add quite a few links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out costs by making a variety of duplicate sales pages with completely different prices on every page. Make sure that your gross sales copy is strictly the similar on each web page, and consists of your promoting-deal with sentence. Then figure out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and gross sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum value is.

Ultimately, if you happen to've written a e-book that solves a problem or presents a new approach, your e-book will bring in both traffic and profits.
