Do that by making a gross sales page for the new book, but do not include a price on that page. As an alternative, add quite a lot of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out costs by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Be certain that your sales copy is strictly the same on each web page, and contains your promoting-handle sentence. Then figure out for each web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and gross sales of your book. This can tell you what your optimum value is.

Finally, should you've written a e book that solves a problem or presents a brand new technique, your e book will bring in each traffic and profits.
